The Leeds course in Clinical Nutrition

Wednesday 12 – Friday 14 September 2018

Course director
Dr Clare Donnellan
Consultant Gastroenterologist,
The Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

Course aims
The course is specifically designed to provide a thorough grounding in all aspects of clinical nutrition and:

• summarise national nutrition drivers to provide a foundation for the course
• increase awareness of nutritional compromise and its consequences; give practical guidance on assessment of patients, and discuss particular patient groups (surgical patients, those with irritable bowel syndrome, renal disease, eating disorders and liver disease)
• discuss practicalities of feeding in terms of ethics, different methods of feeding and understand more about different techniques to give artificial nutrition
• establish principles of nutritional importance in extreme clinical situations (short bowel syndrome, refeeding syndrome, parental nutrition).

Who should attend?
The Leeds course in Clinical Nutrition is aimed at all professions with an interest in Clinical Nutrition and will appeal to clinicians, dietitians, doctors, hospitals pharmacists, nursing staff and others with interest in patient nutrition.

Exhibition and sponsorship opportunities
As in previous years, there will be a small exhibition of related products from the pharmaceutical, equipment and food industries. Exhibition spaces are limited due to venue capacity and companies wishing to reserve a stand should contact the CPD, Conference and Events Unit as soon as possible. Sponsorship opportunities are also available on request.
